This musical score is for the song "Mom Brain" and spans measures 54 to 63. It consists of two systems, each with a vocal line (S) and a piano accompaniment (Pno.).

The vocal line is written in treble clef with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The lyrics are:
54: worth the pain. — I've got that mom brain. No oth - er way I'd rath - er
57: spend my day. — Than here with you so we can play, play, play. —
60: And hear the fun - ny things you say. — There is no bet - ter way, — Oh babe you're 63: worth it. Oh babe you're worth it.

The piano accompaniment is written in grand staff (treble and bass clefs) with a key signature of one flat. It features a steady bass line and various chordal textures. Chord symbols are placed above the vocal line: C, G, D, G, C, D, C, G, D, G.

At measure 63, the piano part includes a "Glissando" instruction with a series of right-pointing arrows, indicating a sliding effect in the right hand. The piano part ends with a double bar line.
