

We are America

Lyricist: Berkeley Williams

(Soprano, Tenor/Soprano, Alto)

Composer: Charlotte Tamanaha

♩ = 56

8

(S) It takes cou - rage to sta-nd for jus - tice, to stir the wa - ters

14

when the oc-ean seems calm. (T) It takes st - rength, to tu - rn and swim up stream-to fight the cur - rent pull-ing us down. (Both) We may not stand a chance a - lone. But, may-be to - ge - ther, we can turn the tide 'round. Re -

20

27

33

mem-ber her Fight for her Our na-tion is stron ger- when to ge-ther we stand for truth a - nd each o - ther As one

39

(Both)

46

We are A - mer-i - ca.

(T) So here we

52

are charged with the fuel of our past. Who will we be? How to pro - ceed so the changes will last? (S) It's time to ask our-selves, Where do I stand?

57

62

What can I give? What's my part in this great land? (Both) Con -

67

A

si - der those who gave their life, Hear with your heart, then lift up your 72

voice, and o-pen your hands. - Re mem ber her - Fight for her

78

Our na-tion is stron ger when to ge ther we stand. Fi-ght for tr u th

(S) (T) (S) (Both)

84

a - nd each o - ther As one we are A - mer - i - ca.

90

Choose to o-pen your heart to your neigh-bors. They may not look or be-lieve as you do. But pil-grims and he-roes di-dn't give all they had for us to for get who we are - 106

95

100

(T) We are A mer-i - ca. Bro-thers and Sis-ters Deep in our b - o - nes O - n - e peo-ple Our na-tion is
 (S) (T) (S) (Both)

111

stron ger when to - ge - ther we stand F - o - r truth, a - nd each

117

o - ther. u nit - ed as one.